

This is an example of the type of dialogues I have had with other Christians. I post it here so you can see how some Christians respond to having their public comments about politics challenged. They want to be allowed to express their opinions, but they become offended when their views are challenged.

These are our communications on my page and the few on her page. At the end you can see, she reported me even after I had already agreed not to contact her any longer.

I am using a fake name for her to protect her identity. As my intention is not to expose her, but only her disposition. Here I call her Eve Baxter.

Eve Baxter- to me on my page

Biden seems to have a better plan for unity. President Trump seemed to have no plan for unity. I will not read or listen to past events of either man. I listened to and watched their actions recently.

Danzil Monk to Eve

Sis. I respect that point. But most people are only exposed to media attacks that are fabricated, exaggerated or out of context. What you are getting from media is a narrative, which spins the point to feed you a view, not report the facts in context. My point is that these Biden issues were not reported by the left media and people who think Biden is upstanding are unaware of them. If you think Trump has no plan for unity I need you to ask yourself why? I watch the media as you, but not just the many left media but also right media and political experts of history and when you hear them discuss what is going on in the media, you get a more clear idea of that is happening. Why is it that I have seen and heard Trumps plan for unity and you have not? When he speaks of making America Great again, he was speaking about taking care of America first then others and not allowing others to take from us. He also said that by having a strong economy we all benefited so we would not unnecessarily give millions to hostile countries any longer or international interest that did not benefit us. He has never spoke against unity, it has only been the left that has accused him of doing so. The devious way they have misinterpreted his comments is amazing, and the way they have made true comments he has made seem hateful is also amazing. I know your heart sis so I know you are sincere and that is why I am pointing this out. There has been so much venom and misrepresentation that people are believing things that are not true just because they hear or saw in on the news.

Eve Baxter-(to someone on my page)

I made a suggestion to this Christian I graduated high school with we spoke for 4hrs 30 minutes on politics. And I told him for his own mental health to turn off the television and radio news. It's endless babble, and he will learn nothing. He can watch or listen to radio news for hours and learn nothing. You'll learn what this stranger thinks and what that stranger thinks, they'll bring on some other stranger to report the vote and his projections. Spew vitriol, hate, and spin narratives. And to seriously turn it off to save his mental health. I recommend you do the same.

Note: Eve did not do this her self and has been fully influenced by LEFT media, which is why she does not like TRUMP at all. Which she has every right not to, but to pretend that she arrived there on her own is not honest.

Danzil Monk (to Eve)

Sister Eve, I agree with you debate over politics is fruitless unless done in a forum with formal rules. But private conversations are necessary and important if we are going to help each other overcome the enemy's pitfalls [of deception]. And there are many today in our society. When you like, call me and share with me your thought, and allow me to share mine. The way things are now is no accident and it will get worst if people are allowed to speak untruths and go unchallenged. I have much to share with you. I think you will find it both interesting and helpful.

Nora Pope To Eve Baxter

Thank you well said...This sounds Trumpish...I don't want to look back...only forward..I'm tired of the Divisiveness...and still with the "Right".. "Left"...Democrats..Republicans...Let's pray for peace...and God's will to be done..

Eve Baxter To Nora Pope

Exactly!!!

Danzil Monk to Nora and Eve

My sisters, you are both not quite looking at things biblically. One of our problems is that Christians have been convinced that politics is something separate from the Church, nothing could be more untrue. WE are called to be involved in every important aspect of human society. WE are the salt of the earth and Lights of the world. We do not have the luxury of praying in silence and staying out of the discussion. Jesus Got Himself killed because He would not be silent about evil and sin in the society. And corrupt religious folk provoked a political leader to kill him. John the Baptist was beheaded because he would not be silent about political sin. Politics is all through the Bible in Both Old and New Testament. I am not sure how some believers think we can dismiss ourselves from the critical affairs of our society and God will just allow bad people to do good things. I am not accusing either of you of doing so, but I detect in your comments a desire to avoid dealing with the issues because of the “crazy” that is going on. But that is what we are called for. Someone has to be involved who has the mind of God and the ability to give a wise word amidst the hate, deceptions, misrepresentations and manipulation. Please tell me Where I am wrong on this.

(They never did)

Nora Pope to Danzil Monk

I knew that was next...we are not looking at it from a biblical point of view....sooo this is where I exit ..Left I guess or am labeled..blessings

(Note she accused me of “labeling” her, which I did not do)

Danzil Monk to Nora

Nora, What did I say that is wrong sis?

(she did not reply, she just threw a rock and ran)

Danzil Monk to Nora Pope

Labeled? My sister how did you get "labeled" from what I said? And how can you "exit" on a mistaken assumption? That concerns me. "not quite biblical"- require a response that shows why I am incorrect, not assume that I am labeling you and exit. I did explain what I meant by my statement, so all you had to do is explain why I am incorrect. Or ask me to clarify. I have made an effort to be respectful and so I am not clear as to how you arrived at your conclusion about me labeling you or even leaning towards doing so.

Eve Baxter To Danzil Monk

I hope you know that I respect you. I listened to both candidates. Based on what I heard, I feel more comfortable with change. It is not based on what the media says. But I have had people from both camps on my Facebook page sending me things about both candidates. For the most part, I chose to delete the information for both without reading or listening to it. I deleted one person, who kept sending things about the police being justified in how they handle some people. I do understand politics. I will be watching all elected officials, not just the President elect and Vice President Elect. Local elections are just as important.

(I emphasized her contradiction. What she heard was from the media)

Danzil Monk to Eve

I agree Eve, and that is all I am saying. But venom and hate has poured over into the conversations of Christians and some are acting just like the world. God is not having that. But it has stressed some Christian to the point that they run or give in to lies and hate. We must not get discouraged or stressed, we must stay alert, informed and active in the spirit of love. God hold us accountable for what we do and say and what we fail to do and say that we should. That is our Christian life.

Danzil Monk to Eve

A while back I was asked to respond to a post by a pastor friend of mine who was a Bishop, he had posted that Trump Said he had done more for the Christian Church than Jesus, and the people on the post went wild tearing into Trump, Calling him Sick and evil and every name they could think of. When I check into the claim, I found that it came from a satire site that did not claim it was true, but many people who wanted to smear him just picked it up and ran with it. They have made him evil in the eyes of so many and it is sad. As a Christian, I cannot allow myself to be influenced by such manipulation. As Brash and bold as Trump is, I have never seen or heard him say or do anything as President to justify what they are saying about him. By the way, when I posted the truth about the quote, neither the Bishop or any of the people who trashed Trump for it retracted their comments.

Eve Baxter to Danzil Monk

My whole life is based on my views as a Christian. I do not separate the two, so you are wrong in that regard. I have voted in almost every election since I was 18 (local and national). I have lobbied for various issues in Washington, DC, Albany, and in local government offices. I have listened to President Trump and watched his actions. It seems I have a different view of his leadership than you. I do not see him as a unifier or for all people.

(what she does not admit is that what she saw was on CNN, and other left media attacks and spins)

Also, Biden was not a unifier, so if both were not, then why vote for Biden? Unifying was not her real issue then.

Danzil Monk to Eve you said:

“Biden seems to have a better plan for unity. President Trump seemed to have no plan for unity. I will not read or listen to past events of either man. I listened to and watched their actions recently.”

So these are your points:

1. BIDEN FOR UNITY AND HAS A PLAN FOR IT
2. TRUMP HAS NO PLAN.
3. I DO NOT PAY ATTENTION TO THE PAST OF EITHER MAN
4. I WATCHED THEIR RECENT ACTIONS

You Said:

“In this instance, I believe change was necessary”

MEANING BIDEN SHOULD REPLACE TRUMP? Have you examined each of their political and world views? Please explain how Biden is better than Trump. I know you said the news has no influence on you. So I need to know what does that has brought you to your conclusion of Biden over Trump. Please help me understand. We can talk by phone instead of here if you prefer.

Eve you said:

“I don't debate with people about their political views either. It is not productive.”

I agreed, but I then stressed the necessity of communication and dialogue and you did not reply. Was I wrong? Since I did not describe our dialogue as a “debate” I am not sure why that word came up. It is usually used to describe a discussion in which two people disagree, but that is incorrect. It should not be applied to a discussion.

You said:

“ My whole life is based on my views as a Christian. I do not separate the two, so you are wrong in that regard.”

But I did not address your view as a Christian, I said you were not quite looking at this biblically, there is a difference. I then explained my point, so I am not sure how you missed my point.

You said:

“I have listened to President Trump and watched his actions. It seems I have a different view of his leadership than you. I do not see him as a unifier or for all people.”

And you are certainly entitled to your opinion sis. I am just asking you to explain to me what you base that on. You have given me no actual example. I am trying to understand how you arrived at your conclusion and why we disagree. That is important to me. Is it possible that we are viewing different material? What has Biden said and done that makes him a BETTER choice than Trump? And what has Trump actually done that makes him a worst choice than Biden?

(These are reasonable questions I thought).

Danzil Monk to Eve:

Sis. I respect that point. But most people are only exposed to media attacks that are fabricated, exaggerated or out of context. What you are getting from media is a narrative, which spins the point to feed you a view, not report the facts in context. My point is that these Biden issues were not reported by the left media and people who think Biden is upstanding are unaware of them. If you think Trump has no plan for unity I need you to ask yourself why? I watch the media as you, but not just the many left media but also right media and political experts of history and when you hear them discuss what is going on in the media, you get a more clear idea of what is happening. Why is it that I have seen and heard Trump's plan for unity and you have not? When he speaks of making America Great again, he was speaking about taking care of America first then others and not allowing others to take from us. He also said that by having a strong economy we all benefited so we would not unnecessarily give millions to hostile countries any longer or international interest that did not benefit us. He has never spoke against unity, it has only been the left that has accused him of doing so. The devious way they have misinterpreted his comments is amazing, and the way they have made true comments he has made seem hateful is also amazing. I know your heart sis, so I know you are sincere and that is why I am pointing this out. There has been so much venom and misrepresentation that people are believing things that are not true just because they hear or saw in on the news.

Danzil Monk to Eve

Please don't misread me, I have never said Trump was a saint, I argue that he is better for us than the Dems and other Leftist. Based on his commitment to our Nation and our constitution, to our Religious freedoms. the Dems are clearly against Biblical truth and Christianity, and they will screw us even worst then they did under Obama if they take power.

Eve to Danzil:

You make very strong assumptions just because I do not believe that Mr Trump would be a unifier as the next president does not mean that I agree with everything offered by the new administration. We have very different views about things. I did not say don't post on my page. I asked you to stop tagging me in your political posts. I respect you but I will not debate these issues. I have read your comments. I have watched some of the videos you post. My opinion has not changed. Oil and water.

Danzil to Eve:

Sis. I fully respect your right to your opinion. And I would never deny you that. My concern is that as a Christian we are all required by God to be honest and to represent people fairly and accurately. AS you here have corrected my misunderstanding about commenting on your page. I failed to heed your actual words and assumed more than you intended. I accept that correction. But you also said that you "saw no point in these conversations". I take that to mean that trying to help a Christian to carefully evaluate what they say publicly, is pointless.

I don't agree it is pointless, since the Bible teaches us to help others who error or misrepresent the truth about matters. I do so out of concern for our example to the world and our obligation to God and his Word. That is love, to say nothing is not love and to reject correction is not love. I have only sought to help you to understand how important being accurate is in your public comments. If that offends you, I am saddened. I love you and want the best for you, and I expect you to also seek to help me stay in line with God's word. If that disturbs you, I will no longer comment, because I do not want to offend you. I only addressed your posts because you stated your support for them and they contained information that was not true or fair.

Spiritually that is a serious matter for us as believers. I am concerned that "objection" and "denial" was your reply rather than an explanation as to why you were correct to edify me. I have always esteemed you as a sister who loved God and his truth. I never saw you as being sensitive to challenges to your views, or to correction. Am I in error?

(I received no reply)

Eve Posted a video on her page of a Christian minister who was claiming to be balanced, but who basically expressed negative comments about Trump that were not at all balanced or fair. And I watched it and replied to it. And I notified her of my reply via messenger, without posting it on her page. I also did not mention her name in my page post of the video.

(This was my page post)

I AM SHARING THIS FROM A CHRISTIAN SISTER'S PAGE WHO HAS ASKED ME NOT TO TAG HER PAGE ANY LONGER WITH POLITICAL CONTENT. AND SHE DOES NOT WANT TO BE QUESTIONED ABOUT IT WHAT SHE POSTS ON HER PAGE. SO, I NATURALLY COMPLIED WITH HER REQUEST. IT IS SAD THAT SOME CHRISTIANS HAVE ADAPTED THE SAME MIND SET AS THE WORLD, "DON'T CHALLENGE MY OPINION JUST AGREE WITH ME OR LEAVE ME ALONE". THIS VIDEO AND THE BROTHER WHO IS DELIVERING THE MESSAGE IS A GOOD EXAMPLE OF SOME CHRISTIANS WHO "CLAIM" TO BE ONLY SPEAKING FROM THE BIBLE AND DEFENDING GOD'S WAY, WHILE BEING BIAS AND UNBALANCE. IT IS LIKE TALKING OUT OF BOTH SIDES OF YOUR MOUTH, BUT SAYING IT IN A

WAY THAT SEEMS TO BE SINCERE AND "NICE". SO AFTER WATCHING THE VIDEO, I REPLIED TO IT AND SENT MY REPLY TO HIM VIA HIS WEBSITE ON FEB.5, 2021. I HAVE NOT RECEIVED A RESPONSE, AND SO I POSTED MY REPLY ON HIS FB VIDEO PAGE YESTERDAY. I AM POSTING MY REPLY HERE AS WELL. SO YOU SEE, IT IS NOT ONLY THE CRAZY LEFT THAT WE HAVE TO WATCH, BUT EVEN CHRISTIANS WHO THINK THEY ARE HELPING. WE AS CHRISTIANS HAVE TO BE WATCHFUL AND PAY CAREFUL ATTENTION TO HOW OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS EXPRESS THEMSELVES, AND NOT JUST ASSUME THAT BECAUSE THEY SOUND "KIND", THAT THEY ARE SPEAKING CORRECTLY. OR THAT BECAUSE SOME OF WHAT THEY SAY IS CORRECT, THAT MEANS THAT ALL OF WHAT THEY SAY IS CORRECT. AND WE MUST CHALLENGE THAT WHICH IS NOT CORRECT. WE ARE BIBLICALLY CHALLENGED TO DEAL WITH OUR CHRISTIAN FAMILY WHEN WE SEE THEM DO SOMETHING THAT IS NOT IN LINE WITH WHAT WE ARE TO BE AS CHRISTIANS. (GALATIANS 2:11)

I AM OPEN TO ANY CORRECTION ON THIS, SO PLEASE FEEL FREE TO CHALLENGE MY OBSERVATIONS AND LET ME KNOW WHERE I AM OFF HERE.

This is the reply I sent to the speaker:

My reply to your Wednesday Word January 13, 2021. January 13th Face Book message. I agree with the obligations of Believers to facilitate unity (true unity with people who want to do right), stand up for biblical truth and be examples of what God called us to be. But I would like to know how you seek to reach your goal or be faithful to your stated agenda, if you are not fair and balanced. IF your thinking is also influenced by leftist narratives and spins of what is done and said by leaders, how can you be trusted to deliver a balanced message that will direct people to a solid biblical display of godliness?

You say that God was cleaning house by removing Trump "because he was proud etc." but you ignored the fact that his predecessors and successors may well have demonstrated greater evil as well as pride only out of public view, via their policies and God only knows the back room deals that were made.. For you to teach that Trump was removed for his pride "by God" using his "Pride" as gauged by his bold open and some times foolish comments, that other Presidents practiced off camera and out of the press, and THAT GOD WOULD HAVE ALSO BEEN AWARE OF, seem to me to be a bit presumptuous.

Since your stated goal is to unify and side with what is biblicly right, should you not be balanced with your observations? To denounce Trump for his boldness, "arrogance" outspokenness and any other faults you perceive, without doing the same to the left Press, Big Tech, Hollywood, Network talk-show hosts, our Public education system, Critical theorist, those who preach intersectionality, race baiters etc., all of whom contribute to the influence of the public, is not accomplishing what you say your goal is to be balanced and fair.

While I am certain that God is active in the affairs of humanity, and that nothing happens without His consent, I do not see how you can say "God" Removed Trump when there is so much evidence of election foul play. Does God use Sin and corruption to accomplish his deeds, could God not have caused Biden to win in a land slide without any actual evidence of fraud and fowl play? Or are you convinced that Biden won fair and square with no fraud, or no fraud significant enough to make any difference like the Left and some conservatives claim? I would like to know how you come to such conclusions? Did God give you inside information, or do you rely on the same sources as we all must? Do you deny that Satan could have had any part in Biden's election? If not, why? I am also interested in knowing why you feel that the Biden Administration cannot be a punishment to our nation for our obvious sins. You did not say anything about the sins of the current administration, their ungodly policies and agenda that has been a matter of public record, but you seem to be targeting Trump, why? Perhaps you can provide for your viewers a comparison between Trumps policies and The Policies of the Left Dems. At least that would be a more honest effort at balance, Again, I am with you on our obligation as Christians to be righteous, holy and godly and to strive to help others to be, but when you commit to being unbalanced and unfair, you counter your own stated goal and intentions.

When you side with any evil or unrighteousness or fail to be balanced in your presentation, you give reason for suspicion and that is why I am contacting you. I know none of us are perfect, but I have seen so many “good intentions” in history and in my life time, morph into just another special interest religious movement that is controlled by evil people with money. It seems that everyone has their price, and I am hoping you are not such a person.

I encourage you to take more time evaluating your comments before you make them in public, and be willing to acknowledge when you have mis-spoken and correct it so that you will not be justly accused of “Pride”, “Arrogance” or any other negative justly.

I believe I see what you seek to accomplish, and it is commendable. But it is not so easy, and the most difficult aspect of it will be to strive to be “sound in speech, that cannot be condemned (truthfully).

I pray that you do not take my comments here as an attack on you or your efforts to do something godly, it is not. I just seek to push you in the right direction. God knows we need great examples in church leadership, and there are far too few. But then, these are the last days.

(Note: I never received a reply from him, even though I posted it on his page and emailed it to him, I also called his ministry and left a voice message informing them of my sent reply).

My FB private messages to Eve

Eve, you are welcome to call me any time to talk. XXX-XXX-XXXX. What is going on on social media demands a sound Christian voice, with so many deceiver, disrupters, God haters and poor Christian examples living there, I am only trying to be a voice in the wilderness. There is clearly not enough sound Christian content or good Christian examples on social media. If I error, please feel free to correct me, I welcome it. But you should also be prepared to demonstrate why I am wrong. That is the Christian way. Agreed? We can talk any time please feel free to call me.

I love you my sister. Please pray for me as I pray for you.

Eve to me.

I will keep you and your family in prayer!!! And thank you for praying for me!!!

Eve Baxter posted:

She posted a video of Arnold Schwarzenegger using his past personal bad experiences to gain sympathy and trust and then trashing Trump, using unsound accusations to do so.

Titled: (My message to my fellow Americans and friends around the world following this week's attack on the Capitol)

Eve replied to the anti- Trump video on her page:

“Exactly!!!”

(Meaning she fully agreed with Arnold Schwarzenegger)

So I replied to her:

Danzil Monk to Eve:

I agree with some of what he says here and strongly disagree with other things he says here. But I am more concerned that Christians are simply agreeing with the entire message without reasonable or even fair evaluation. It is like their minds are trained to accept what the Left media says without question. That to me is disturbing. I watch Christians and listen to them make statements and repeat accusations with no convictions about the accuracy of the statements or no concern about the truth of the statement. And that concerns me. Even worst, when they are asked to defend their support for such statements and accusations, they refuse to do so and just continue to repeat their support for the misrepresentation and inaccuracy with no conviction, and then accuse those who ask for their justification of being crazy, a cult or foolish for not agreeing with their perspective. The Bible tells us to "prove all things and hold fast to that which is good (2 Thess. 5:21) Proving is not just repeating what someone says but establishing why what they say is correct or true. That some Christians refuse to understand this is disturbing. I have seen Christians who were disturbed by the blind thinking of Atheist, demonstrate that same blindness when it comes to their faith in leftist media. Such Christians will cut you off and avoid you while claiming to love you, just because you insist that they prove their convictions and not just post them and repeat them. They don't seem to care that their errors are affecting others and they are accountable for how they affect others to believe what is not true or is inaccurate. We will all give account to God for what we say and what we do. Thinking you are correct and being correct is not the same thing. And being offended by someone's effort to correct you by challenging your convictions is not a biblical attitude. I try to remain open to any and all oppositions to my comments and convictions because I understand that I could possibly get something wrong, so cross examination is extremely important. If I can't defend my convictions, there is no reason for me to hold them dogmatically. God help those of us who rely on media to tell us what to think without being willing to carefully and righteously evaluate the information to determine where the truth is. You have my prayers.

Danzil Monk to Eve:

I noticed that you simply agree with all he (Arnold S.) says with no effort to separate fact from opinions. Why? Is that what we are taught from God's word? In his message he made no effort to carefully evaluate the details of the events. He simply appealed to emotions and his personal experience and then applied that to the events at the capital and condemned Trump and the many peaceful people there along with the evil and foolish people who committed the offense. As a Christian, I need you to explain to me how this is good or fair? Please compare his message with this one by Candace Owens and tell me which is more accurate and why. I do not always agree with Candace, but she does a better job at dealing with the misinformation of the left on the Capital tragedy here than Arnold does. He is a leftist and is doing what they do. We are supposed to be Christians and our duty is to uphold truth not feeling and political opinions. Please tell me where I am wrong.

(Note: Youtube has since removed the video but I downloaded it and will make it available on this site)

Eve Baxter to Danzil Monk

I do not see any point to these conversations. I respect your right to believe what you want. Respectively, please stop tagging me in your posts.

Danzil Monk to Eve

Done. I have removed your name from my list. I will no longer post or contact you unless you reach out to me in the future. I am concerned about your disposition and will be praying for you. I trust you will pray for me as well.

(Note: In spite of this agreement, she felt it necessary to report me to my church leadership, that speaks volumes about her intentions).

For Christians to get on Social media and speak their mind, not only on their page, but on the page of others, and expect not to be challenged and held accountable for what they say is foolish. But this happens a lot.